Nick Bricknell has been our most prolific tutor since the earliest days of U3A classes in Logan. His many appreciative students will remember Ideology, Philosophy, Cartooning, Mythology and Exploring English (3 levels). Sadly, Nick will be unavailable for a while.

We sincerely hope all goes well for him and that he will be back later on, perhaps in Term 4. In the meantime, some of Nick's previous students will be holding a discussion group at 9.30 on Tuesdays when they can catch up with each other and discuss interesting topics of their choice. Angela de Hennin is the facilitator with the help of Lois Greensill and Shirley Gow.

Social News from Helen Dubois

The ABC Tours proved to be very popular and even after arranging to have 2 tours in both Terms 1 and 2, there were still people asking to go. John O'Connor (ABC tour manager) has advised that once a month, he arranges tours for people who are not with a group. Just contact John at brisbane.tourmanager@abc.net.au and arrange to see the ABC whenever you wish to go.

Bus Trip to Robotic Dairy:

We have only 6 seats left for this excursion with Cross Country Tours on Friday June 20th. It is great value at $50.00 for the visit, morning tea and lunch. See page 3 of the Term 2 class Schedule for more information. The bus leaves from Roma St (outside) the Transit Centre at 8:00am then picks up again at Kessels Rd Macgregor Park & Ride at 8:30am. It should be an interesting day.

The Christmas Lunch will be held this year at the Ithaca Room at the City Hall on Tuesday 25th November at 11:30 am for 12 noon cost $60.00. The guest speaker will be Patrick Condren, the morning presenter on 4BC that has provided support for U3A over the years. Many of our members are listeners to 4BC. Patrick has been in the media for many years and is an interesting speaker. The booking sheets are available in the office. Get your class together and make a good party. Alternatively, if you don't come with a group, we will seat you at a table where you will soon make friends and have a great time.
